1 Report of Officers

1.1 Treasurer (Dave)

- We currently have $2500. The pop machine is making no money (we had a pop-recession) and the photo copier is breaking even.
- Can set up printing on the terminal so he wants a new coin-op for the photocopier.

1.2 President (Chris P)

- Went to a UPS meeting by accident. Discussions on removing pre-requisites for special topics courses.
- New course proposal by current director, CMPT 375. It's a Software Engineering 1.5.
- CS wants to create an intro to MS Office for non-CS students to help increase numbers.
- Will create more than one CMPT 165.
- Profs learning to teach upper division courses without TAs. This will most likely happen after spring 2010.
- Three new possibly directors, this information was sent in an email to cmpt-majors.
- Installed a grfx card in the new terminal.

1.3 VPO (Sepand)

- Attended the Constitution Review Meeting.
- Locked down the new terminal.

1.4 VPA (Devan)

- Trying to increase movie night attendance.
- Usually sells all the pizza slices.

1.5 Burnaby VPR (Cory)

- Got a terminal from Free Geek. It worked too well but now it is fixed.
- Ordered pop two weeks in a row, there is no pop recession.

1.6 Surrey VPA (Curtis)

- Talked to Dan Carter and discusses collaboration between ESSS and CSSS. This will be a priority with the new Dean of Applied Sciences.
- Will man the Surrey Open House table for the CSSS.

1.7 Surrey VPR (Chris W)

- Agrees on the need to co-operate with the ESSS.
- There is an ESSS poker night every Friday at 5:00 in Surrey.
- Would like to reconsider combining the two lounges.

1.8 Surrey Exec @ Large (Marc)

- Has an old computer that he can donate to the CSSS for a Surrey terminal.

1.9 Secretary (Josh)

- Gets to do nothing interesting.
- Number of people requested him to take them off the CSSS mailing lists: 11.
- Number of requests that have been followed through: 0.

1.10 First Year Rep (Ivan)

- Playing video games.
- Filled pop machine for the first time.

1.11 Burnaby Exec @ Large (Mel)

- Went to the activities meeting and talked about... stuff.

2 Van City

- Dave wants to transfer the bank account from RBC to Van City because RBC charges us many monthly fees. This would be a simple change.
- We would get 40 transactions a month, and have to pay for cheques unrelated to the account.
- We can get a visa or overdraft protection, but have to wait two years.
- Dave motions to replace the RBC bank account with a Van City account because Van City charges no fees. Josh seconds.

- Dominic asks how much we pay in fees? Dave says at least $5 a mnth.
- Dave states that Van City is easier to access, for the next treasurer, and has better hours.

Motion passes.

3 Constitution Review Meeting

- Went over several different issues.
- Questions are asked about the online voting. Dave states we would use the same web survey the SFSS uses to poll the undergrads.
- Cory asks if it is the same survey that had to be shutdown and restarted a half hour after polls opened?
- Chris P says he would like to plan a meeting six weeks from now to approve the new amendments.

4 Common Room Improvements

- Chris says we have been trying and got new power bars, more are in the closet and we have a new terminal.
- Dave says not to forget about the Pidgeon Hole Principle when picking where to sit.
- Sepand points out there are six holes a couch.
- Cory went to facilities but they said ne pas de dice on new cabinets. We can get file lockers but they don't have locks and we have to get them through the School of Computing Science.
- Chris wants to invest in a proper cabinet.
- Suggestions of where to get a new one include: Office Depot, Staples, Ikea, Garbage Dump
- Cory will keep his eyes open.
- Sepand suggests spending $200 for a new cabinet.
- Chris was thinking much more than that, $500 - $800.
- Sepand roars that $500 is too much!
- Chris rebutes he wants to keep his assets safe.
- Dave wants to spend much less. $800 is a safe.

- Phil materializes out of no where.
- Dave talks for Curtis on Surrey Common Room improvements.
- Can get a free terminal from Free Geek if we wait two weeks, or can pay up to $50 which can come from discretionary funding.
- Dave motions on the behalf of Curtis to spend up to $100 on a new mini-fridge for the Surrey Common Room that is possibly shaped like a Panda Bear. Josh seconds.

Motion Passes

- Chris notices we can get the exact same steal cabinet for $280 from Office Depot.
- Dave says we need to add multiple steel bars and to use the lock which adds support.
- Phil suggests a gun safe from Costco.
- Dominic says we can store water guns in said gun case, so if we get attacked by the Engineers we can pull out our water guns from the gun case.

5 Frosh Week

- Josh and Tom motion that Josh and Tom do it.
- Chris found a cabinet for $130 on Craigslist in Burnaby.
- A meeting is going to be set up on what needs to be done for Frosh Week, such as the invitation letters to all the new CS people.
- Talks of doing a prank against some other faculty in some other university, that may have failed a recent prank of theirs involving a VW and a bridge, to start off Frosh Week.

6 Laser Tag

- Consensus seems to go on the Wednesday. Devan will phone to see if they need to book.
- Chris wants to do teams.
- Devan suggests doing teams against the Engineers.
- Dan says it is after the Polar Plunge, which he suggests Mel should do.
- Mel may do Polar Plunge.

- Devan wants to meet in the common room at 6:30 and be there for 7:10.
- Talks of subsidization for CSSS members.
- Devan would like to motion up to $200 of funding to subsidize players for four dollars for two games or eight dollars for for games on Wednesday February 25th, 2009. Josh seconds.

Motion Passes.

7 Console Night

- This was the second event, Devan had a massive migraine and did not see how the event was.
- Variable attendance with an maximum of 18 people.
- Mel states that no one told her to get snacks.
- Devan said it was his fault.
- There were two bands of Rock Band and a game of Super Smash Bros going. Attendance dropped to 10. Not as sucessful as the LAN Party.

8 LAN Party

- Devan had no migrain, had more fun.
- Ended up mostly playing 1000 Blank White Cards.
- Played Games and had snacks.
- Mel explains it took forever to get food.
- Ivan points out that it is because she wanted to use the Self-Checkout.
- Attendance: 12 people.

9 Approval of Minutes

- Devan wants them funnier.
- Chris motions to approve the minutes. Josh seconds.

Motion Passes

10 Open Floor

- Taylor resigned (a bunch of first years are excited). Elections will be held for a second 1st Year Rep next meeting.
- Ivan claims the Common Room needs moar cowbell!
- Mel wants to do Dodgeball
- Chris wants to do dodgeball against other DSUs.
- Tom doesn't want to get sacked again.
- Discussion of how the Engineers cheat at the slushie drinking contest.
- Chris says we must train on the slushies every day of Frosh Week.
- Dan asks if we want to do a Foosball tournament to meet to new people.
- Chris wants to do a slushie drinking and another event.
- Dan suggests The Amazing Race?
- Tom claims the Amazing Race was fun!
- Devan says the next activities comitte meeting is on Wednesday at 4:30pm.
- Sepand talks about CUTC.

Sepand says "Orders of the Day" at 5:49 PM
